

WHAT STATE FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE IS AVAILABLE TO HIRE VULNERABLE PUBLICS?

rsa (In calculating rsa rights, the regulations in force take into account the particular situation of women who are victims of violence. Indeed, separation or end of cohabitation is taken into account by the CAF and CCMsA in determining rights to the rsa. This possibility, which is too little known, is particularly important for female victims who are often forced to leave home without having their own resources)

For companies offering an employee savings plan, women victims of domestic violence can unlock it early. The victim must have obtained from a family court judge a protection order prohibiting her (ex-)partner from entering into a relationship with her or with those close to her. The operation is also authorised if the acts of violence are the subject of a judicial investigation by the public prosecutor, a referral to a criminal court by the public prosecutor or the investigating judge, an indictment, a conviction (even not final), an alternative to prosecution or a criminal composition.
